PICKINGS FROM FICTION.

Ambitious people must always be disposed people. "Name For a Woman."

The best kind of courage often comes from a full stomach. "Captain Mack."

Love is like honey. It must be taken by sips. One must not swim in it. "The Pharaoh and the Priest."

The man who is weakened in well doing by the ingratitude of others is serving God on a salary basis. "The Power of Truth."

Nine times out of ten a woman falls through love, and she must be reached by love if she is to be restored. "Down in Water Street."

Don't call yourself a friend and be thinking all the time what the other side of the friendship can do for you - "Aunt Abby's Neighbors."

Philosophy is primarily a matter of food; secondarily, a matter of clothes; it does not concern the head at all. "Two Thousand Miles on an Automo-

Half the trouble of this troubled world comes from the fact that for one reason or another, women are not able to look up to the men with whom they have dealings. "The Vultures."

A couple of inscriptions. "I was in New York one day and took a trip down to Coney Island," said the agent of a Pittsburgh nail mill. "I had heard of the slick fellows down there, and so I left my watch at home and carried a dummy across which I pasted a slip of paper bearing the words, 'Look inside for a fool.' I hadn't got the salt taste of the ocean yet when the watch disappeared, and it was three hours later, as I sat in a booth drinking beer, when I felt that watch in a side pocket of my coat. I pulled it out in amazement, and I found my slip of paper replaced by one bearing the words, 'Look outside for an ass!'. It may be that I got the bulge on the gang, but somehow I have always thought that they came out a trifle ahead—just a trifle."

The noblest courage is that of the woman whose lips smile when her heart weeps.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured
My Wife.

Dr. Miles' Nervine has been successfully tried in thousands of cases of nervous disorders, but never has it made a better record than when used in the treatment of fits or spasms. Thousands of testimonies prove this, and in nearly every case the writer has stated that the doctor prescribes they would find that the doctor's prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

In consulting with my doctor he advised Miles' Nervine of Cardi and Thedford's Black Draught, and so I took it and had every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and I only took three months to cure me.
